SELECTION CRITERIA

for applications submitted to the INTERREG V-A Austria-Hungary Programme

Project selection in the programme INTERREG V-A Austria-Hungary

Project selection is based on two sets of criteria:

1. administrative and eligibility criteria,
2. quality assessment criteria.

Administrative and eligibility criteria have to be fulfilled by every project proposal; they are “knock-out” criteria. They do not measure the quality of the project or its content. Only if all administrative and eligibility criteria are fulfilled a project will proceed to the Monitoring Committee (MC) for decision.

Quality assessment criteria measure the relevance and feasibility of the project. This is reflected in two types of assessment criteria. Strategic assessment criteria are meant to determine the extent of the project’s contribution to the achievement of the programme objectives. A strong focus is given to the result orientation of a project with the demand for visible outputs and concrete results. Operational assessment criteria review the viability and feasibility of the proposed project, as well as its value for money in terms of resources used versus results delivered.

1. Administrative and eligibility assessment

Private persons, political parties and individual entrepreneurs are not eligible for funding (either as lead partners or as project partners).

All questions in the list of administrative and eligibility criteria must be answered with yes/no (for exceptions related to criteria A.3.5 and A.3.8. see footnotes 2 and 4). Those project applications that fully comply with the administrative and eligibility criteria will be subject to quality assessment.

In general, applications submitted via eMS to the Joint Secretariat at latest by noon, 70 days before the MC meeting will be evaluated and -if eligible- proposed to the MC for decision. 2. Quality assessment

Based on the submitted application form (and its annexes), the Joint Secretariat (JS) assesses every project and produces a non-binding recommendation to the MC. The evaluation includes scores as well as written comments to each criteria and a summary (including strengths, weaknesses and open questions with regard to the project). The purpose of the evaluation is to support the MC in its decision making. The right and responsibility to decide about project approval is the sole responsibility of the MC, whose decision may be different from the recommendation of the JS. Projects will be evaluated according to the criteria in the table below.

Scores are allocated to each evaluation criteria between 0-3:

- 0=insufficient
- 1=low
- 2=sufficient
- 3=excellent

Each evaluation criteria has a weight of either 1 or 2, whereby a higher weight is given to those criteria that are considered by the MC to have more significance for the quality of the project. The weighted total score of the project is the product of score and weight for each question, summed up for all the criteria: maximum 45 points for the strategic, as well as for the operational assessment criteria, altogether maximum 90 points for a project.

The regional coordinators (RC), in exceptional cases external experts or relevant line ministries that are not members in the MC – contribute to some criteria (marked in bold) with written comments. The JS consolidates these comments and, if needed, adds comments of its own and summarises the evaluation of these criteria by giving scores.

If the JS gives 0 points in any of the quality assessment criteria, they must give a justification and input for improvement. Giving 0 points in the quality assessment shall be a strong signal to the MC, meaning that there are serious problems with the project. The MC is expected to discuss these criteria, and approval may only be possible, if a sufficient answer can be given to the problem (either in the MC, in the form of a condition or in a resubmitted application).

Low scores received at the strategic and/or operational assessment criteria signal the poor quality of the application. As the strategic relevance of project applications and a clear added-value of the cross-border approach are at the core of the Interreg V-A Austria-Hungary Programme, the importance of strategic criteria is mirrored accordingly by the setting of thresholds. Consequently, if the project scores

- 26 points or less in the strategic assessment criteria
- or 23 points or less in the operational assessment criteria, it will be put on a risk list. In such a case the decision of the MC has to be “rejection” or “postponing”.

The special criteria and principles that have been defined for the specific objectives are assessed separately in a written evaluation. For those criteria no scores will be given because neither the projects nor the criteria in the different specific objectives are comparable.
