PRESS RELEASE

The 4th milestone of the ArcheON INTERREG project

Dear Sir and Madam!

Dear everyone, who is interested in archaeology and the history its telling!

Numerous ArcheON project events were implemented in the last months

E-Brochures were compiled for different age groups

As a result of the activities of the Savaria Museum, a total of four E-publications have been compiled, presenting the archaeological values of Vas County and Burgenland, targeting different age groups, and now they go public. Let's discover the archaeological values of Vas County and Burgenland. For the E-publications click on the cover page!

The archaeological project ArcheON (Reg. Nr. ATHU121) as part of the INTERREG V-A Austria-Hungary program is implemented through the promotion of the European Regional Development Fund.

Archaeological suitcase has arrived

As one of the educational activities, Savaria Museum will organize Information-Roadshow covering museum pedagogical practices on multiple occasions, approximately in the summer of 2021. For the roadshow, we planned the procurement of a so-called archaeological suitcase with various thematic tools, which arrived in February 2021.

The archaeological project ArcheON (Reg. Nr. ATHU121) as part of the INTERREG V-A Austria-Hungary program is implemented through the promotion of the European Regional Development Fund.

Project partners had an online meeting this time

The cross-border project partner meeting on March 26th, 2021 was conducted online due to the COVID-19 pandemic. All project partners represented themselves at the meeting. The most important activities such as: status of the treasure map, and scientific publication, actual activities, were discussed in detail. A very eventful period is ahead of the project.

Museum Open Day in Burgenland

On 27.03.2021, a museum open day was held titled Raw materials of the Bronze and Iron Age and their processing in the region of Schandorf. During the event, visitors had the opportunity to gain an insight into the historical techniques of iron and bronze making, and to learn about the finds unearthed in Schandorf.

Archaeological excavations in Schandorf

From the very beginning of May and until the middle of June archaeological excavations are being conducted in Schandorf, during which a barrow is being explored. Several programmes will be organised for the public, for adults and for children as well.
