

NETWORK OF AUSTRIAN-HUNGARIAN DIHS

The cooperation of four Austrian (Campus02, PROFAKTOR, FOTEC, Forschung Burgenland) and one Hungarian (PBN – amLAB) partners is created to facilitate digital transformation in the cross-border region.

Read more >>

WHAT IS A DIH?

Digital Innovation Hubs are one-stop-shops that help companies to become more competitive with regard to their business/production processes, products or services using digital technologies. 394 organisations are in the EU as fully operational Digital Innovation Hub to support digital transformation. 4 of them are members of IMPROVE! Network at the Austrian-Hungarian cross-border regions.

Read more >>

PRACTICAL EXAMPLES

Business cases
Examples for successful business development with digital solutions.
MORE >>

Pilot developments
Complex digital solutions provided for SMEs in the cross-border cooperation.
MORE >>

INTERNAL TRAININGS

Within the process of knowledge-integration, in order to create a common base for collaboration, numerous internal trainings were organized in the fields of:

- ~Prototype design & development
- ~Scientific software development workflows
- ~AI-applications
- ~VR & robotics
- ~Social Media

Read more >>

LEARN MORE!

Follow us on Facebook, LinkedIn and subscribe on the newsletter not to miss the following topics:

Pilot projects
Pilot projects are cooperation of the IMPROVE! DIH network's members. Let's see how can different DIHs - among others e.g. universities - give added value for a digital development at SMEs. Follow the implementation phases here.
MORE >>

Smart teaching factory
The smart teaching factory as automated system simulates a highly automated smart factory, including industry 4.0 technologies. It will be installed in the Autumn 2021 at am-LAB to develop the network's services on a connected way.
MORE >>